ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS A YEAR IN ADVANCE

IN HONOR OF CONGRESSMAN ROBSON

Judge Wm. D. Sampson, of the Court of Appeals, was host at a dinner party Sunday evening at Mrs. H. H. Van Zant's in honor of Congressman J. M. Robson, of Barbourville and Washington, D. C.

In addition to the guest of honor covers were laid for the Governor and Mrs. Edwin P. Morrow, Adjutant General Jackson Morris and Mrs. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Jarvis, Attorney General Charles I. Dawson, Assistant Attorney General Thomas B. McGregor, Misses Stella May and Cora Geyer, Mrs. Sam Shephard, Messrs. Manon Cornett, Sam Carey, F. R. Grissom, John D. Dillon, J. M. Perkins, Roy Speck and Dr. R. S. Tuttle.—State Journal.

BREAKFAST WHEEZES

Manager George Ricketts of the Star Store has been known to Buster Brown Shoes. Quite an athletic stunt.

That yarn that B. S. Edwards, of the Clear Tone Music Co. is getting off about a fellow citizen lighting his cigar with a $100 note at the bank is a joke. It was a note he had paid up.

Hugh M. Oldfield has talked preparation for death so much and persuaded so many men that the best policy is to prepare for it that the ministers' union is eyeing him with suspicion.

H. L. Taylor, City Clerk, is fortunate in that he listens to good Council.

The best paying oratory in town is neither that of the minister or the lawyer, but of the spokes men at the Hickory Mill. They also make a great hit with their golf sticks.

It's all moonshine about the stills in Knox County.

When going to see the Ex-county Attorney in his new office, does one climb the Golden stairs?

The warrants Mayor Tinsley signs which bear our fellow citizens' names are never fought but warmly received by those who get them.

Dr. A. L. Parker, without extracting the root of a patient's tooth, presented it to him on a plate last week. It wasn't a conjuring trick either. He X-rayed it.

WHAT 50 KIWANIS CAN DO

50 Kiwanis equal 50.
A factory is desirable.
50 Kiwanis times $100 equals $5,000.

Result 1 factory.
1 factory plus 1 factory equals 2 factories and so on.
Go to it, boys!

PLEASANT BRIDGE PARTY

On Tuesday night Mrs. James Kauffman and Mrs. Ben Kauffman pleasantly entertained four tables at bridge. Every one had a good time with these hospitable people. Delicious refreshments were served.

The Civic League will meet Mar. 2nd with Mrs. Gibbs Lusk.

UNION BROOM SWEEPS CLEAN

Last week Union College boys went on a triumphal tour. LaFollette High went down by a score of 23-22, a most exciting game. The next win was over Johnson Bible School, 28 to 19.

On Saturday night in the home gym the boys played Cumberland College, winning by a score of 17 to 21. An extra five minutes play was necessary to decide the tie and Will Tye utilized the time by throwing two wonderful goals from center which killed Cumberland's possible chance for victory.

The girls of both colleges then went on the floor. After some fine playing by Miss Ellison, of Cumberland, which gave that college 15 to 5 at the end of the first half, Union girls buckled down giving Cumberland only one foul goal in the second half, winning the game by a score of 18 to 17.

Cumberland College came from Williamsburg in a special coach on the L. & N. seventy-two strong showing a fine interest in their college sports.

Monday night of this week U. C. boys cleaned up Berea 21 to 19.

SILVER TEA

The Ladies Aid of the Christian Church will hold a "Silver Tea" at the home of Mrs. G. M. Richards. The ladies wish to call attention to the fact that a quarter is the smallest silver coin made by our government. A good feed and pleasant social intercourse are promised.

EVENING PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Oldfield entertained some thirty-five guests on Thursday evening, Feb. 16th, at their charming new home on Pine Street. The congenial people, fun-producing contests and just talking passed a very pleasant evening all too quickly. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. James Miles entertained on Saturday evening with a dinner the guests being Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs Lusk, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burman. A round of bridge was played during the evening.

AFTERNOON BRIDGE

Mrs. L. L. Richardson entertained with a seven table bridge party on Monday afternoon. Dainty daffodils from the hostess' own garden were used as decoration and favors and also on the hand-painted tallies.

High score was made by Mrs. A. M. Decker and low by Mrs. Fred Burman the hostess presenting each with a suitable souvenir. Miss Marjorie Brown and Miss Catherine Richardson assisted in serving a salad and chocolate course at the various tables after the game was played.

OVERALL FACTORY WILL OPEN MONDAY

The Barbourville Overall Factory an entirely new industry founded thru the initiative of F. W. Golden, R. N. Jarvis, W. H. and N. C. Dethage, will open for operation Monday. This factory will create a satisfactory pay-roll which will help the merchants and citizens.

We need more such industries and still hope we can get a cannery. The trouble with Barbourville is the lack of an organization to push just such projects. Hence our desire to see a Kiwanis Club started.

RECEPTION

Miss Gertrude Black, the district History Chairman in the Women's Federated Clubs of Kentucky, entertained on Wednesday, Feb. 8th, with an informal reception at her home in honor of Mrs. W. T. Lafferty who lectured that evening. On account of the threatening weather not as many as availed themselves of this opportunity to meet Mrs. Lafferty personally as might otherwise have done so. The spontaneous hospitality of the home of Gov. Jas. D. Black is always felt by those who gather there and soon the various groups were engaged in animated chat. Mrs. Lafferty charmed all who met her with her sprightly bits of Kentucky history.

Mrs. H. H. Owens poured tea in the dining room where dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. Jordan became identified with the Williamsburg Institute about this time later teaching in Cumberland College, Williamsburg, Ky., for some twenty-three years. For the past three years he has made his home in Barbourville with his son, Victor A. Jordan.

Mr. Jordan had no enemies that he ever knew of. He never used profane or smutty language, not even using a by-word. All who knew him thought well of him. He never turned away anyone whom he could help and even assisted in the education of several boys and girls. He joined the Baptist Church in April, 1893, in which he was active leading a devoted Christian life till he met his death.

James William Jordan was born on Stinking Creek, Knox County, at Hammond, Ky., being the son of Woodson and Amelia Jordan, both of whom have passed to the great beyond. He is survived by four sisters and three brothers besides his one son, Victor A. Jordan and wife, Maude Mae Jordan and four grandchildren, three girls and one boy.

The largest congregation ever known in this section attended the funeral which was conducted by Prof. A. R. Evans, of Williamsburg, Ky., and Elijah Hubbard, of Girdler.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

There will be the usual services on Sunday, Feb. 25, with Rev. A. A. Ford minister in charge.

MARTHA WASHINGTON ENTERTAINS

Little Miss Ruth Hawn had the patriotic pleasure of being born on the birthday of the Father of His Country and therefore issued formal invitation to a bevy of young buds like herself to please come and help her celebrate her seventh birthday. When the guests arrived they were met by Miss Bertha Burman who introduced them to Mistress Martha Washington, garbed to suit the character. Miss Evelyn Garrard and Miss Katherine Hawn presented each little guest with a tiny national flag and then all indulged in games.

One of the most enjoyable parts of the afternoon was a cake that looked good enough to eat and in fact was readily disposed of by the little girls. It had seven wonderful candles, red, white and blue, that burned beautifully.

Mrs. Anna Stewart Griffith was the charming needle woman to Mistress Martha, making the old timey dress as well as seeing that each little girl had such a good time that she would remember Miss Ruth and her party.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Hall of North Jellico Lodge, No. 320, I. O. O. F.

Gray, Ky., 2-5-1922.

The Death Angel has once more invaded our ranks and plucked from our number a true and loyal Brother and again brings to us that sacred admonition, "man that is born of a woman is of few days and full of trouble."

The great Architect of the universe has seen fit in his infinite wisdom for reasons known to himself not to us, to call our Brother Grant Campbell to that house not made by hands eternal in the heaven.

Therefore, be it resolved:—That in the death of Brother Campbell this lodge has lost a good and loyal Brother, the Church and County a Christian gentleman, the family a devoted husband and father. We are at a loss for words to express our sympathy to the bereaved family, ever remembering to point them to Him Who said "I will temper the wind to the shorn lamb and be the widow's God."

Resolved:—That a page of our record be set apart for these resolutions and a copy be sent the family and ask the local papers to please publish.

Done by order of North Jellico Lodge No. 320, I. O. O. F. All of which is fraternally submitted and signed by its committee:

F. C. Dizney, Chas. Steele, James M. Trosper.

CORBIN TIMES-TRIBUNE

The Corbin Times, now the Corbin Times-Tribune, has become the property of Richard G. Williams and John L. Lair and is really giving the news. When the people of Corbin and Whitley County become convinced that they now have a real newspaper in their midst we predict for it a big future.

MABEL SAYS

"Hello, Mabel! Been out to the laundry again? And, say, who are you courting out there?"

"Now, you hush! I'm not courting anyone out there. I just like to go around and see what is going on at our local industries."

"I tell you, you can learn a lot that way. Now, take this laundry, for instance. It's wonderful what you must learn about chemicals, dyes and even fabrics to be able to run a laundry successfully nowadays. It seems they have a State and National Association, and these associations have laboratories and employ chemists to experiment on ways to better laundry conditions and they send out all the information thru their trade journals."

"They are now taking up a study of textiles—how the fabrics are made and what effect the different dye stuffs have on them. Do you know the laundry people are trying to have a pure fabric law passed the same as we have the pure food law, and also a law requiring all laundry men and cleaners and pressers to have a certificate showing that they are competent to care for our linens and wearing apparel."

"By the way, have you seen the new moth and dust proof suit bags the laundry send your dry cleaning in now? I am going to send Bill's suit next week just to get one of those bags to keep my best gown in."

Well, I must be going. Good-bye, dear."

"Good-bye, Mabel!"

THE FLOOD

Time and tide wait for no man and, following heavy rains in the mountains, the Cumberland River did some swift work this week. The water was within six feet of the highest it has reached of late years. Depot Street was completely under but autos could get to the L. & N. depot along the Avenue by going thru considerable water. Boats were in use in many places and some of the young people enjoyed a trip in a motor boat going quite a distance toward Emanuel.

It is a very picturesque scene and makes one think of dear, old Venice don't you know, but it is also a tremendous economic knock to the town which will some day be done away with as it can be if we make up our minds that it must be. The way to do a thing is to do it.

ART EXHIBIT

The Woman's Study Club and the Civic League have secured for exhibition the "Guerin Prints" being copies of the paintings of Jules Guerin, one of the most famous of American painters. They will arrive here within the next ten days and due notice of the time and the place of exhibition will be given. Our people should avail themselves of the opportunity to see these fine copies of these great paintings.

The Mountain Advocate gives the news of Knox County.
